

PV Platform Implementation plans

PV platform	Organisation	WHODrug Link Korea available from version/date (draft plans)	Additional information from PV platform provider
Argus	Oracle	2021
LifeSphere Safety MultiVigilance (LSSMV)	ArisGlobal	Q1'2021 for LSSMV 7x version Q4'2021 for LSSMV 10x version
BRIDGE NEOS	Prudentia Group	5.1 / March 1, 2021	Prudentia plans to release BRIDGE NEOS v5.1 on March 1, 2021 with Korea E2B R3 functionality including use of WHODrug Link Korea to facilitate drug code mapping. BRIDGE NEOS v5.1 supports regional E2B R3 specifications as well as E2B R2 specifications for FDA combination product reporting.
TransformPV	Vitrana	TransformPV v2.1 / Mar 2021	TransformPV would provide capability to automate the mapping of WHO UMC codes to MFDS. Additionally a UI based browser selection would be available to search MFDS codes and also review the mappings to WHO UMC
eSafety	Zhejiang Taimei Medical Technology Co., Ltd.	April 30, 2021
HALOPV	Insife	June 1, 2021 on HALOPV 2.3.2 or later	HALOPV is a comprehensive drug safety system, capable of case intake, processing, submission as well as providing capabilities for aggregate reporting, regulatory intelligence, signal and risk management, PSMF, SDEA, literature monitoring etc. HALOPV is built on modern APIs and artificial intelligence for automation. HALOPV complies with a number of different regulatory standards globally, including Korea E2B(R3) submissions